

Fabián Panisello, Composer / Conductor

Biography

The Argentinian-Spanish composer and conductor Fabián Panisello moves at the height of the times with his lively, vivid and finely differentiated tonal language. The long-time director of the Reina Sofía Conservatory in Madrid began his training as a composer in his hometown of Buenos Aires with Francisco Kröpfl. In 1993, as a student of Boguslaw Schaeffer, he graduated with distinction from the Mozarteum in Salzburg. He received further inspiration from Elliott Carter, Franco Donatoni, Brian Ferneyhough, and Luis de Pablo, and in conducting from Péter Eötvös and Jorma Panula.

Fabián Panisello's compositions continue to be performed by renowned interpreters. The Arditti Quartet premiered his Three Movements at the Takefu Festival in 2006. Pierre Boulez conducted the SWR Symphony Orchestra in 2008 with the orchestral work Aksaks. Under the direction of Péter Eötvös, the Orquesta Nacional de España premiered Mandala in 2009. In the field of vocal music, his Gothic Songs, which premiered in 2012 at the Alte Oper Frankfurt with baritone Leigh Melrose, was followed by two monodramas: L'Officina della resurrezione was launched in Katowice in 2014 with baritone Holger Falk; the world premiere of The Raven will be given by mezzo-soprano Annette Schön Müller with the PluralEnsemble in Madrid in 2022.

The premiere of his chamber opera Le Malentendu, based on the stage play of the same name by Albert Camus, was enthusiastically received in 2016. The world premiere of his opera Les Rois mages, commissioned by the Ernst von Siemens Music Foundation and the Foundation of the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, was also a great success. After its premiere in January 2019 at the Auditorio Nacional de Madrid with the PluralEnsemble conducted by the composer, the work was presented in Nice, Tel Aviv, Vienna, and Klagenfurt. He is currently composing the opera Die Judith von Shimoda with a libretto based on a text by Bertold Brecht, which will be premiered in Bregenz in 2023.

Fabián Panisello is the founder and artistic director of the PluralEnsemble, one of Europe's most outstanding new music ensembles. Both with his ensemble and as a composer, he is a regular guest at major festivals for contemporary music such as Wien Modern, Présences, Ars Musica, Ultraschall, Aspekte, and Klangspuren Schwaz. As a conductor, Panisello has also led the Ensemble Modern, Ensemble Orchestral Contemporain, Nouvel Ensemble Moderne, and the Israel Contemporary Players, among others. In February 2022, he conducted Luis de Pablo's last opera El Abrecartas at the Teatro Real Madrid with extraordinary success. Other guest conducting engagements this season include the Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional in Buenos Aires, the Orquesta Sinfónica de Tenerife, the Joven Orquesta Nacional de España (JONDE), and ensembles such as UMZE in Budapest and Paramibao in Quebec.

His work has been recognized and championed by Pierre Boulez, Luciano Berio, and Karlheinz Stockhausen, among others. He has received various awards including the Salzburg Preis der Erben Mozarts and the Premio Iberoamericano de Composición Rodolfo Halffter. Fabián Panisello is a member of the Argentine Academy of Arts. He appears regularly a guest lecturer at institutions such as the Eötvös Foundation in Budapest, the China Conservatory of Music in Beijing, the Domaines Forgés in Canada, the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance, and the Royal Academy of Music in London.

Recordings of his music have appeared on labels such as NEOS, Col Legno, Cypres, Verso, and Columna Música. His compositions are published by Edition Peters.
